Foreword

The people we have known: the places we have lived, worked, and studied; the experiences we have shared—that we might easier recall these scattered memories, the PaJaCa staff has tried to present in this book a brief sketch of this past year at Pfeiffer Junior College.

Frances Widenhouse, Editor

To "Pop" alias Mr. Jones D. Miller who has been our true friend and ever patient listener during our stay at Pfeiffer. He has shared our sorrows and our joys; he knows our fears and our ambitions. Pop is all for us, and to him we dedicate this yearbook and a place in our memory no one else could fill.

VALE TO THE SOPHOMORES

A man or woman can read many books, listen to many lectures, and write many term papers—but unless he makes the books, lectures, and term papers a part of himself, he has merely spent his time.

I hope in the time you have been at Pfeiffer you have begun to learn that, after all, self education is true education and that nobody can do much for you except yourself.

Sincerely,

Chi M. Waggoner

R. L. Bates Vice-President

Betty Sinclair Secretary

It was with great anticipation that the Sophomores returned to their place as upper classmen for their 1947 school year. Most of us came back eager to go to work and see what we could do. We were glad to welcome to our group many veterans, some of whom were former Pfeiffer students. With a combination like this, we could not fail.

History

Our first day at Pfeiffer! Rain! But behind the clouds the sun is always shining.

Tired, wet, muddy strangers loaded down with suitcases, tramped up the walks to the dormitories. Rooms were assigned and then—the first glimpse of our "new homes" and roommates.

Strangers soon became friends; we were just "one, big happy family" at the Mixer Party, remember?

Then came the blow that we had to take examinations even before classes started. We were scared stiff because we didn't realize until then how much we had forgotten (or never learned). But somehow with Miss Madciff's efficient time piece, we struggled through. Registration—for the most part was for what we had to have and a minority of what we wanted. Life can be hard!

So a few of us knew each other, but then came the President's Reception and we were totally convinced that we would never remember all those new faces and unusual names. Yet the faces and names became familiar and we finally fitted them together and made a personality.

That's the night "our knees knocked" when we were officially introduced to the leaders of our "do's and don'ts" and made a tour of our campus living quarters.

Finally classes started and we were off with flying colors!

The Harvest Dance was our first formal occasion and didn't we think that we were the "Mr. or Mrs. Gotrock"? Of course, the timid girl was left sitting on the bench while the others tapped one of the few boys on the shoulder! (There was a man shortage, you know! Fun, wasn't it?)

Sadie Hawkins' Day was quite a treat, especially the costumes. Say, Daisy Mae, which Lil' Abner did you give the merry chase and track down?

Thanksgiving was here before we had a good breathing spell and we dashed home for our first holiday. Were you one of those unfortunate persons who caught that "cold bug" and joined the other "flu members"?

Then Christmas came with dorm parties, the special choral program, and the formal dance.

Remember how we crammed at the very last minute for those mid-term exams? Passed! Failed!

The Washington Ball was here before we realized it with Sam Lefler and Sarah Whitley as George and Martha. What about the Silouhettes by Ed Fink and Selma Kincaid; the Waltz (Coach's hand by accident), by Maurice Blevins and Marjorie Robertson?

Spring was here! It brought the recitals, chorus concert and the All-School Banquet. Can't you just hear Mr. Bagby "rooting" for Carolina during those school yells? Speaking of the teacher, remember the student with the "southern drawl"?

May Day brought rain! However, Doris Shaw as the lovely Queen and her court made a very pretty picture with the gym as the background. Winding the maypole was quite an occasion! Wasn't it fun to know where your streamer should have been and wasn't?

Exams—our first year of "higher larnin'" had come to a close. Our big-sisters and big-brothers received their well-earned diplomas. Did you also have a "lump" in your throat when you bade them goodbye?

Farewells, hurried departures, promises to write, and we went our way!

Believe it or not but we returned in September on a beautiful day (without rain)! Girls, could you believe your eyes to see so many males on campus?

It was good to see some familiar faces and quite overwhelming to see all those new ones!

At the Mixer Party we had a swell time during the Grand March!

Then again the President's Reception; old friends, new acquaintances! Classes began.

So in due time we elected our Sophomore class officers: Bob Davis, President; R. L. Bates, Vice-President; Ida Lee Beck, Treasurer; and Betty Sinclair, Secretary.

Will you ever forget Hallowe'en night? The entire Campus' trip to Cruses—"the boy with the voice" finding his pants hanging on the flagpole, the decorations streaming around.

The Deadline Dance offered a lot of fun for the farmers and farmerettes in their obnoxious costumes; those over-sized families; dancing; contests; Oscar's imitations of the barnyard follies!

Sadie Hawkins' Day, the Harvest Dance, the Christmas Dance were all highlights of the fall semester.

And didn't you think that the Pennsylvania Chorus would never stop talking about their trip to Buck Hill Falls?

History repeats itself and we were again facing those mid-term exams!

After that ordeal we turned toward the spring months and their festivities with anticipation. The Washington Ball (Lamar Garland, Richard Fowler); the Spring Dance; Concerts; May Day, with Marta Fehrman adding her attractive personality as Queen.

At last (the long awaited day)—the receiving of our diplomas—graduation!

We, as friends, companions, co-workers have now finished our school days at Pfeiffer and in a few years we will be scattered to the four corners of the earth. It's a little sad now but when later in life we remember Pfeiffer it will be with a smile on our lips and a glow in our hearts of the happy memories we shared at our Alma Mater.

Prophecy

One day in the late spring of 1947 I was peacefully minding my own business when someone yelled into my ear, "Hey Mac, yeah you, c'mere." Meekly I turned around and to my surprise no one was there, but something grabbed my hand and started shaking it. In a rather well traveled voice it said, "You need me, bud. M'name's Kilroy. Heard you were writin' a prophecy so thought you and I could wow 'em." I had heard of this uncouth invader that presented himself to our campus this year but never had I had occasion to meet him. He put a "buddy-buddy" arm around my shoulder and said, "Get a 'writer, Mac, and I'll throw you the inside dope."

He started off with a distant tone, "You know that guy that 'B. R. J.' hung the moniker 'Mop' on? Well, now he's president of Morgan Industries, Inc., and netted over a hundred grand last year. Ol' Stowe Koontz is Vice-President.

"Remember how Bob Greene liked baseball? Well, now he is in the big leagues. Good too!

"Gert Smith, Gene Farrior, and Charlotte 'Thud' Barton are on that new radio program, 'Life Can Be So Sweet or Whatcha Doing Sugar?' They make B. Hope and R. Skelton seem dull.

"Tacoma Fisher, remember her? She was the inspiration for 'Huggin' and Chalkin'!' Love dat woman!

"Bill Walser is now manager to Corinne Stiller and Jim Styers who model exclusively for Vogue and Esquire. They're really on the ball.

"Flash! According to a recent poll, the former Betty Rogers and Eunice Misenheimer have shared the honors of 'Mrs. American Housewife.'

"Ben Courts with his knowledge, is bound...?

"New York critics are raving over the recent duo-concert by Mlles. Stirewalt and Sinclair, piano and voice respectively.

"Guess who is singing those commercials now? The man with the rollicking tonsils and the slightly stretched vocal cords . . . Ed Fink.

"Most up-to-date Night Club in Misenheimer, 'You Guzzle, We Muzzle,' owned and operated by Mack and Yeatts. Guess who is 'torch' singer? Marj Robertson.

"Out of a cloud of bluish smoke whose face do I see—Talbert; finally got a new car.

"New book just off the press, A Goaded View of English Literature co-authored by R. L. Bates, Ph.D., and Miss Frances Harper, Ph.D. A comprehensive study of the Boswellian Period. 14 vols. Published by Clarke and Moore, New York, N. Y.

"Jo and Marta are teaching the 'leettle Cubanos' how to do things the American way. They're good too!

"Bob Davis and Hugh Poplin are starring in that new professional basketball team that is sweeping from coast to coast undefeated. Jim Mauney is in coaching position.

"Lise Meitner's protegee, Robinette Meador, has announced a recent discovery in the field of nuclear physics.

"Carl Stroupe is President of the Triangle Service, Inc., a complete system of modern filling stations, and he also runs his own oil refineries. Quality plus.

"Eva Lingerfeldt has just entered the hospital under the care of Helen Moser. Eva suffered a bad sprain while teaching Physical Education at Vassar.

"Sam Erwin is now running for the Presidency of the United States. His close friend and election manager is Paul Arnold.

"Alene Stokes is traveling south. Loves that Spanish drawl.

"Seen in the Stork Club, Miss Joan Plint, the million dollar heiress, and William Haire, world famous 'Crime Cracker.'

"Neal Pitzer's business is all dead but he seems to enjoy it since he is Winston-Salem's finest mortician.

"Sarah Jones has taken Betty Grable's place as Miss Pinup. She is known in the movie circles as the 'Legs' and can best be described by a long, low, well modulated whistle.

"New York's skyline has been invaded by the largest building in the world. It is half again as tall as the Empire State Building and was designed by that well known architectural trio, Burrage, Christensen, and Treece.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the 1947 Sophomore Class of Pfeiffer College, being of average intelligence and of good health, do hereby make, bequeath and publish this, our Last Will and Testament to bestow upon those we leave behind our worthless but coveted possessions.

ARTICLE I

To Mr. Waggoner, our beloved president, we leave our most sincere "Thanks" for the personal attention and patience administered to us during our two years at Pfeiffer.

To the members of the faculty we leave a heart-felt gratefulness for their faith in our ability and their understanding of our mistakes and failures.

ARTICLE II

Joan Plint, Peggy Stirewalt, and Betty Gregory will their enormous height to Bill Adams, who with those few extra inches would be tall, dark and cuter.

Wilma Allen, Margaret Doby, and Faye Hayes will their loud ways to Helen Boone.

Dot Jones wills her ability to play that boogie-woogie to Ramona Simpson who just "sings."

Charlotte Barton will give to anyone who can get along with Miss Endly as well as she the privilege of sitting in the library night after night.

Bob Davis and Pete Clark will their good personalities and way with the women to Cyril Herlocker.

Ida Lee Beck promises faithfully to leave part of her knowledge of the New York hotels to Joy Blackadar.

Corrinne Stiller, Betty Jean Blackwelder, and Georgia Stabler will their glamour and good taste in clothes to Lee Walker.

Linten Davis and Sandy Kincaid leave their cute school-girl ways and over-developed vocabularies to Janell Sedberry and Virginia Dennis.

Neal Pitzer and R. L. Bates leave their oratorical ability to Tommy Ridenhour and Grady Barringer.

Imogene McBride would like to let all girls in on her secret of sticking to one man and holding him.

Virginia Weant and Eva Lingerfelt will their ability to play good basketball to Ruby Norman and Margaret Juboor.

Lloyd Garmon and Flynn Burrage leave their good looks to Ed Plyler.

Carl Christensen, Frances Widenhouse, and Ted Stewart leave their high intelligence to Bill Goodman.

Maude Goff, Maggie Campbell, and Mozelle McCormick leave their leadership ability and fine spiritual character to Doris Tant and Winifred Biddle.

Betty Sinclair wills her nightingale voice to Geraldine Surratt.

Helen Hoyle and Pat Irish will their dramatic ability to Barbara Flynt.

Brantley Shaw and Olen Morgan will their ability to make good grades to those poor souls who will need the quality points.

Mary Frances Starnes and Golda Skeen leave their office positions to James Weddington and Irene Hill.

Stowe Koontz leaves his presidency of the Loafer's Club to Jay Shaw.

Ralph Vick and Bob Greene leave their habit of coming in late for breakfast each morning to Stokes Hamilton and Tommy Stalvey.

"Miss Dorothy Jones has been recognized as the world's most versatile piano player, playing anything from Bach and Beethoven to Basie's Boogie. 88 keys never before opened so many doors.

"Harold Clayton is coaching Pfeiffer's team. He has had three conference championships in three consecutive years.

"Don Juan was a piker compared to him. No one else can make such beautiful love. His delicacy has been unequalled in the history of mankind. We mean that woman's man, the one at whose very name the girls swoon—Jerry 'Aloysious not so Vicious' Miller.

"Notre Pierre has had his wish. He is directing a YMCA camp for the boys that have no other source of clean recreation. A really dependable man!

"You remember Red Mashburn, Bud? He was a good ol' guy at school. Well, now everyone calls him Reverend Mashburn and he's one of the best in the state too.

"I know you remember John Richards and Lloyd Garmon; boy are they making the money in the salvage business. They sell iron and steal for a living. That's a joke, bud.

"I know you couldn't forget how Fran and Rachel and Carolyn and Betty Jean used to play basketball together, and how the gang that used to stay up at the 'joint'—Geneva, 'B. J.' and Georgia (with the southern drawl) Stabler, and that (the girls all say it's true), cute Ralph Vick. You couldn't forget them or the others like Mary Frances who was always working, always on top of the honor roll and always smiling, and Pat Mabe—a really nice girl. You couldn't help but remember these and all of your other classmates, bud. Excuse me while I blow my nose; guess I'm getting sentimental. But you know, bud, these are the people that democracies are made of. They're dependable and work hard but still they're American enough to want to procrastinate a little. Didn't know I could use big words did ya, bud? That's what I get for staying on PJC's campus for so long. By this time Kilroy and I were getting to know each other fairly well, and I asked him what was going to happen to me.

"Well, bud, when people read what you just got through writin' some of them are going to get awfully angry and so if I were you I'd write a little apology right down at the bottom and say 'I'm sorry' and then blame the whole thing on me. You know, bud, I kinda enjoyed our little chat, but I gotta go now, have to keep up my reputation. So long."

STUDENT COUNCIL

Neal Pitzer President

R. L. Bates Vice-President

Frances Harper . . . Secretary and Treasurer

Begun in February, 1945, the Council brought forth its purpose as that of encouraging the developing true Christian character and promoting the aims and philosophy of the college. Three years of our newly organized Student Government has established a permanent, working Student Council.

The Council considers changes for the governing of the students, discusses improvements in the current activities, aids the President and Deans in settling campus problems, manages some activities, carries out the decisions made, and disciplines.

Members: Moffitt, Weddington, Redwin, Erwin, Davis, Tant, King, Pitzer, Bates, Harper, James, Clarke, Thomasson, Burrage.

Advisors: President Waggoner, Dean Waggoner, Dean Hinson.

THE COUNCIL

PHI THETA KAPPA

Ted Stewart	President
Robinette Meador	Vice-President
Pat Irish	Secretary
Mary Frances Starnes	Treasurer

The only scholastic honorary society on the campus, and the junior college counterpart of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Theta Kappa membership is small but gradually growing with the size of the college. We hope that our society will inspire other students to carry on and hold the Pfeiffer standards high.

ORDER OF SUNDIAL

Joan Britt	President
Herb Clarke	Vice-President
Sam Erwin	Secretary and Treasurer

This is a local organization made up of those students who excel in the extra-curricular activities on the campus. Membership is honorary and allows only those who are members to wear the Pfeiffer "P." Those students who are so honored are usually leaders on the campus, holding most of the club offices.

Members: Bates, Clarke, Erwin, Davis, Goff, McCormick, Jackson, Rogers, Jenkins, Pitzer, Meador, Britt, Jones. • Advisor: Dean Hinson.

DELTA PSI OMEGA

Sandy Kincaid President
Imogene McBride Secretary and Treasurer

The Delta Psi Omega is the junior college division of the Alpha Psi Omega, the national dramatic fraternity and the largest honor society in any departmental field. The members of the Speakers' and Actors' Guild who have achieved outstanding progress in dramatics may become members of this organization.
Advisor: Mr. Blevins.

SPEAKERS' AND ACTORS' GUILD

Tommy Tucker President
Luther Thomasson Vice-President
Tommy Stalvey Secretary
Bob Davis Treasurer

The Speakers' and Actors' Guild is a literary organization open to the talented young people interested in furthering their ability in dramatics, debating, and public speaking. Tryouts are held in the early fall to obtain members. During the year, this club sponsors plays, intercollegiate debates, and enters the forensic tournaments.
Advisor: Mr. Blevins.

To develop a philosophy of life from day to day that is patterned after that of The Master, to create a tolerance for people of other creeds and colors, to build a comradeship with students round the world through participation in World Student Service Funds and in World Student Christian Federation's World Day of Prayer, and to make brotherhood a reality—these are the goals of the Young Women's Christian Association on our campus.

This, the largest organization on the campus, composed of the entire women's student body, holds precedent in the minds of its members, guiding their daily activities.

Y. M. C. A.

Sam Erwin President
 Paul Arnold Vice-President
 Mack Moore Secretary
 R. L. Bates Treasurer
 Mr. Thompson Advisor

The Y. M. C. A. is an organization here at Pfeiffer to better acquaint the boys on "How to Get Along with One Another."

The aims of this organization are, and always will be, to unite the boys in a Christian attitude toward one another, and to have a good wholesome time together in fellowship.

W. A. A.

Virginia Weant President

Carolyn Morgan Vice-President

Francis Jackson Secretary

Eunice Misenheimer Treasurer

Miss Current Advisor

This club sponsors the intramural programs, various tournaments, and play days. The purpose of the Women's Athletic Association is to offer to every girl at Pfeiffer an opportunity for participation in a varied program of activities.

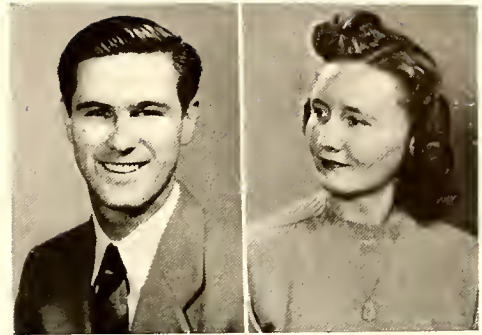

FELLOWSHIP GROUP

Clarence Letchworth }
Mozelle McCormick } Co-Chairmen

Colleen Harder Secretary

Miss Floyd Advisor

This organization is for the students interested in full time Christian service. It meets twice a month for fellowship, discussion, and study of the field of service. The aim is not to work as a unit but as members of other campus organizations.

Deadline Club

Herbert Clarke President

Pete Clark Vice-President

Margaret Doby Secretary

Buckley Rader Treasurer

Miss Boswell Advisor

The Deadline Club serves the Pfeiffer News and other college publications. Deadliners type copy, fold papers, solicit advertising. Membership is recruited from volunteers who meet the deadline.

Home Economics Club

Robinette Meador President
 Helen V. Jenkins Vice-President
 Imogene McBride Secretary
 Sally Whitaker Treasurer
 Miss Gordy Advisor

ROBINETTE MEADOR

The Home Economics Club is composed of students of that course and has for its major purpose the promotion of interest in all that pertains to the improvement of home and family living. Meetings are devoted to business, programs, social activities, and the study of different vocations found in the Home Economic field.

P. B. M. C.

Arthur Neal President

R. L. Bates Vice-President

Virginia Weant Secretary

Ray Treece Treasurer

The Science Club was organized in the fall of 1942 by a group of students who were interested in furthering their knowledge of science. It is a club in which a person with a knowledge of science can demonstrate his ability in a weird combination of sounds and colors to amuse those who are there to learn or to be entertained.

The initial letters of the Science Club stand for the branches of science in the club:

- P for Physics, Psychology.
- B for Biology, Botany.
- M for Mathematics.
- C for Chemistry.

International Relations Club

Sam Erwin President

Luther Thomasson Vice-President

Tacoma Fisher Secretary

Arthur Neal Treasurer

Miss McCarthy Advisor

The International Relations Club holds regular discussions on questions of current international significance in the fields of politics and economics. Membership in the club is open to all students.

Harvest Dance

As is traditional, the Harvest Dance was the first formal of the '46-'47 social season. Being such, a lot was expected of it, and the success of the future dances of the year depended on the outcome of this one dance. However, the work of the several committees and the attention devoted to this initial dance in the Pfeiffer cycle made it more than just a dance—it was one to look backward on with sentiment, and it instilled anticipation for those to come.

Christmas Dance

In a word, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" as we tripped the light fantastic at the Christmas Dance. It was an event that we will long remember for its beauty of spirit, setting and music. Many's the time we've enjoyed dancing with those we know and love in the past two years, but moments such as this never come often in any lifetime.

Washington Ball

Our first dance of the New Year—the Washington Ball. The grace and rhythm of the dancers tended to make the evening a very beautiful and pleasant one.

Deadline Breakdown

Pie eating, husband calling, hog calling, animal imitation, apple bob, and beauty—these are all contests, and it is history that we had them all in one night with plenty of square dances for extra measure. From that you get an idea of what the Deadline Breakdown was like. Fun without restraint, ceiling, or inhibition was the order of the evening, and it is safe to say that even the city slickers in our midst were exhilarated by hybrid corn in abundance. Corny—yes, but did we love it!

Sadie Hawkins Day

Line up! Ready! Get set! Go! We were all off to the races. Each girl was trying to catch her man. There was nothing quite so enjoyable as the "Sadie Hawkins Dance." The only thing lacking was "Lena the Hyena."

All School Picnic

One of the first events of the school year was the "All School Picnic" at Ritchie's Lake. After hiking over, the group enjoyed such events as swimming, volley ball and the picnic supper.

Tommy Tucker and Sarah Jones leave their dancing ability, especially their jitterbugging, to LaMarr Garland.

Geneva Wright and Gene Farrior will "their" seats at Cruse's to Faye Wilkins.

Carolyn Morgan, Betty Jean Kanoy and Rachel McCulloch will their basketball playing to Hilda Beam.

Frances Jackson and Sam Erwin leave their ability to win friends and their well-rounded personalities to the two next deserving people.

Jim Styers and Bill Walser leave their neatness in dress to Phil Martin.

Paul Arnold and Arthur Neal leave their quiet, easy-going way to Jimmie King.

Ed Fink wills his voice and his way with Miss Bateman to Pocket Poole.

Luther Thomasson wills his mail-carrying job to the guy who is lucky enough to get out of attending the required chapel and assemblies.

Herb Clarke, Robinette Meador and Wistar Moore leave their journalism ability to Don Gray and Joan Maxwell.

Jim Mauney and Hugh Poplin leave their sports ability to L. B. Eller and "Red" Bennett.

Leonard Yeatts and Mack Moore will their physique to June Reece.

Helen V. Jenkins wills the remainder of her bottle of peroxide to Mary Frances Mitchell.

Gertrude Smith leaves her title as president of the Suckers' Club to Jean Alsbaugh and Ramona Simpson.

Camilla Roberson and Helen G. Jenkins will their ability to stick together as friends to Anne Sarratt and Winifred Biddle.

Bill Haire leaves his acting ability (that Van Johnson approach), to Clynt Ratliff.

Thad Stowe and Mary Newell will their love of classical music to Howard Allen.

Bobbie Davis wills her knowledge of shorthand to Jonnie James.

John Richards, Jerry Miller and Arlin McCullough leave their ability to get out of work to David Dennis and Joe Cash.

Louva Young leaves her organ seat on Sunday mornings to Margaret Womble.

Betty Gregory and Margaret Hatley leave their way with the men to Ruth MaKibbin.

Sally Whitaker, Becky Hunsucker, Polly Randall, and Martha Peeler will their sweet ways to Ruby Norman and Joyce Cannon.

Frances Harper leaves her cute appearance and neatness to Lucille Hall.

Ben Courts leaves his "referee" position to Wayne Mabry.

Patsy Mabe and Alene Stokes will their "studious nature" to Frieda Morgan.

Carl Stroupe and James Talbert will their ability to get along with people to Tommy Ridenhour.

Tacoma Fisher wills her ability to get along with Miss MacCarthy to John Moose and Larry Patterson.

Betty Rogers wills her "dining-room work" to Vivian Cress and Celeste Knox.

We do hereby appoint Miss Grace MacCarthy, our class sponsor, executrix of this, our Last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof, we do set our hand and seal, this 6th day of June, 1947.

Betty Rogers, Testator

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

BOYS' BASKETBALL TEAM

Coach Lefko, Jimmy Moffitt, Thomasson, L. B. Eller, Hugh Poplin, Olen Morgan, Andy Harrison, Oscar Escalona, Sam Erwin, Herb Clarke.

• June Reece, Delma Jordan, Benton Bennett, Jim Mauney, Bob Davis.

The girls' basketball team, coached by Miss Current, has been successful in winning all the conference games played. Although Wingate gave us a very close game during the first half, our team settled down in the second half and caged another victory. Neither was Campbell too easy, with her tall forwards and fast guards, but our girls pushed the score ahead in our favor. Spartanburg made our girls work to win but the game ended with seven points to our advantage.

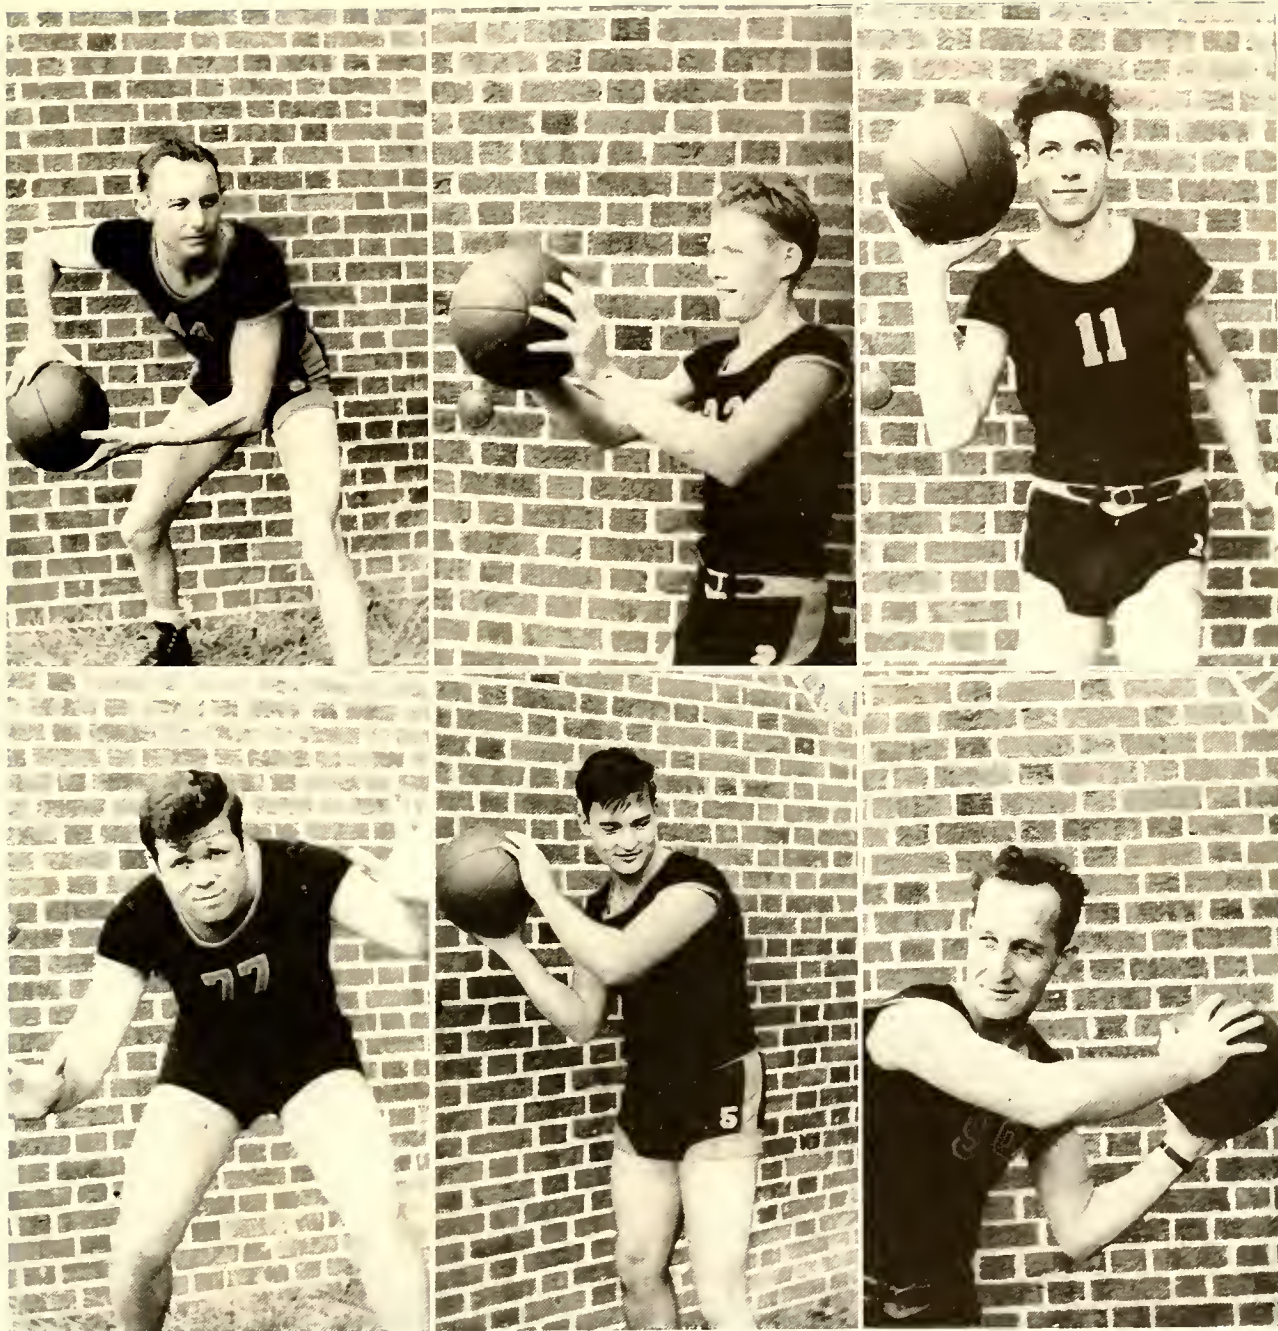

Practice games were played with Richfield, Granite Quarry, Kannapolis "Y," and China Grove.

The trips were greatly enjoyed by the players. Often, songs helped to keep their spirits high, sometimes a hot-dog or hamburger did the trick; and the little horns and balloons helped a great deal too, along with a few flat tires.

The victories were a result of hard practice and close cooperation. The team was coaxed by our high-spirited cheerleaders: Helen Boone, Pete Clark, Frances Harper, and Bill Adams.

The team usually came home sleepy, not too hungry, but happy!
